Atlanta, GA 30318
404-892-3333
www.acfb.org/
Geographic scope: Metro Atlanta & North Georgia

Founded in 1979, the Atlanta Community Food Bank (ACFB) currently distributes nearly two million pounds of food and other donated grocery items each month to more than 700 nonprofit partner agencies in 38 counties in Metro Atlanta and North Georgia. ACFB supports a wide range of people in need, from children to the working poor. Food pantries, community kitchens, childcare centers, night shelters and senior centers are among the agencies that receive products from the Food Bank and provide food and other critical resources for low-income Georgians who suffer from hunger and food insecurity. Any nonprofit organization within our service area that provides free food to low-income persons may be eligible for partnership with the Food Bank. The Food Bank also operates several community projects to aid our agencies in community building, technical assistance and advocacy efforts. For more information on our programs, or how to become a partner agency, please visit our website at www.acfb.org.
